The Way of the Lord

Jean Allen

Last week I wrote about committing acts of love and kindness to encounter Jesus in our daily lives. I could easily write the exact same words as last week for this week's Gospel about preparing the way of the Lord.

Preparing the way of the Lord includes 'metanoia' or the act of turning around and turning away from negative actions, mindsets, God-views and world views but preparing the way of the Lord is much more than that. As I implied last week, every act of love and kindness prepares the way for Christ to come. When we give without expectation of payment, the path of Christ becomes a little straighter and a little less hilly for the one who receives our love. Every kindness, no matter how small, can fill up a pothole that has caused someone to stumble on their way to the Lord. Perhaps the ones we respond to gently and kindly will not immediately have a personal encounter with Christ but the road has been smoothed and preparations made. The next person who offers love may indeed be received as an ambassador of Jesus. We don't know and it's none of our business. Our business is to love and to continually prepare the way of the Lord.

The way of the Lord is not a road filled with criticism, condemnation or judgement. It's not a way strewn with sharp caustic words or 'righteous' resentments. We can't fill in valleys with anger, contempt or entitlement. Those things are actually looming and threatening mountains that block the way to the Lord for anyone who may consider seeking him. The Way of the Lord, the Highway of our God, is a two-way street. It is a path for the Lord to come to us and it is a path that encourages us and others to run to greet the Lord on his way.

Love repairs and prepares the way. The Way of the Lord is not just a metaphorical path; it is also the way Jesus acted and acts:

With love and kindness.

CHRISTMAS FLOWER DONATIONS

Envelopes are at the back of the church for those who wish to donate to the Christmas Floral arrangement. Please print the name of your loved one and write your envelope # and drop in collection basket or at the office window.

Coats for Kids

In 2009, the International Order of the Knights of Columbus launched its 'Coats for Kids' program with a simple goal of giving children in need the gift of warmth in the coldest months.

This winter, the six Knights of Columbus councils in Greater Victoria are, once again, participating and have donated over 260 of these colourful winter coats to First Nations, St. Vincent de Paul, schools and other area agencies which cater to needs of children and families, and also to Ukrainian refugee families in the greater Vancouver area. Order-wide, this winter will mark the distribution of the one millionth coat to a child in need of warmth.

Every time you support your parish Knights of Columbus council, know that you are indirectly helping to fund this program - and your help is appreciated.

"Thank you" from the Knights and the Kids.

Anawim Christmas Donations

Anawim is asking for your assistance again. There is a box in our church foyer to accept donations of NEW CLOTHING items such as jeans, jackets, socks, underwear, shirts, raingear or an other new items of clothes which we use as gifts to the residents of the two houses and to our guests from the drop in program. Anawim will also be having their annual Christmas tree sale starting Saturday Nov 25th at 9 am at the 973 Caledonia Ave location.

Thank you for your long-term support of Anawim.

A SUCCESSFUL FOOD DRIVE!!

Once again, our parishioners did not disappoint and came through to help those in need! Our food drive, in support of the World Day of the Poor, yielded a total of 300 kg. or almost 730 lbs. of food. This was all donated to the downtown Social Concern Pantry! Thank you, everyone, for your generosity... it really makes a difference, especially during the Season of Giving.

Re: Gift card and email scams

Recently parishioners have received emails from scammers impersonating their priest, bishop, or key people in the parish.

No priest, nor parish or diocesan employee will ever ask you for a “favour” or to purchase gift cards! The scammers set up a fake email address under the impersonated person’s name. The email appears to be coming from the real person, but upon further scrutiny the scammer is using a different email account. Almost all of these emails are brief and ask for a favour to buy gift cards or send money.

Please act with caution and be prudent when it comes to responding to requests for money, even from someone claiming to be a priest or from individuals within the Church community. Priests and church employees will not request vague favours, payments of gift cards, bitcoin or wire transfers.

All donations for legitimate parish and diocesan activities are made through traditional verifiable methods and are made to the charitable organization, not individuals.

Diocese of Victoria employees and priests have an official @rcdvictoria.org email address and parish emails are well advertised and on their website. The Diocese also uses noreply@myparishcast.com for group email communication.

Before you give money to anyone or any organization; stop and talk to a trusted friend or relative to determine the authenticity, appropriateness and validity of the request or call the Diocesan Finance Office 250-479-1331.

If you feel that you have been the victim of a financial scam, you are encouraged to make a report to the police.

Please see the BC government website for a list of common scams and some resources:
